Praise for The Jakarta Method

“Essential and devastating.”

– Joshua Oppenheimer, director of The Act of Killing
and The Look of Silence

“Bevins uses declassified documents and one-on-one interviews to lay out in fascinating and frustrating detail how the U.S. fueled the anti-left rhetoric that led to the mass killings of anywhere between 500,000 to 1 million people in Indonesia – and then used that same playbook elsewhere in the world.”

—NPR (Best Books of 2020)

“Riveting....As a polemic, The Jakarta Method is never anything less than conscientious and persuasive, but Bevins’s book truly takes flight as a work of narrative journalism, tracing the history of America’s violent meddling in Southeast Asia and Latin America through the stories of those it brutalized.”—Jacobin

“The Jakarta Method is a must-read to better understand how the U.S. intelligence apparatus became what it is today, and how it’s ravaged so many other countries along the way.”—GQ (Best Books of 2020)

“Excellent...anchors itself in a history most Americans never learned or would rather forget.”

—Ishaan Tharoor, Washington Post
